

CHURCH HOUSE BUILDING SERVICES

Greenwich Promenade

This development is the conversion of the historic water front at Greenwich, adjacent to the Maritime Museum and the Cutty Sark, into the new Thames river boat terminal building with the creation of new restaurants and facilities buildings.

The buildings have been designed by Conran and Partners and in conjunction with the Port of London and Transport for London