

CHURCH HOUSE BUILDING SERVICES

Jarman Way Business Park, Royston

The development consists of fifteen small warehouse/industrial units on a brown field previous industrial site. The units are being developed on a speculative basis and will be customised as necessary

The project also includes the construction of a new headquarters test and development centre for LDS Test and Management Limited. The building will incorporate a custom designed three storey air conditioned office building